

Pamela Bouwkamp

December 26, 1941 - January 19, 2023

Pamela Bouwkamp, 81 of Holland, went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Thursday, January 19, 2023.

Pam is survived by her children: Kelli (Scott) Beyer, Kerry (Diane) Bouwkamp, Kristine (Todd) Kane; grandchildren, Anthony (Jesseca) Kane, Jade (Michael) Pietrangelo, Nicki (Jordan) Beelen, Megan (Ryan) Dreyer, Jacob Bouwkamp, and Zachary Bouwkamp; great grandchildren, Simon Beelen and Reagan Pietrangelo; sisters, Marcia (Vern) Bloermers, and Jane Sleeman; nieces, nephews, and friends.

Pam had a knack for transforming the ordinary into extraordinary. She embraced her own unique style; including the nickname “Panda” from her grandchildren. She enjoyed crafting, painting, and gardening. She was a licensed beautician, worked at Family Fare for many years, and attended Eagles Wings Church. Pam always found positivity amidst hardships, always looking to the Lord for guidance and support. She cared immensely for those she loved, and will be deeply missed.

Visitation/celebration of life is scheduled for 5:00–7:00pm, Wednesday, January 25, at Langeland Sterenberg Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th St. Holland, MI 49423. Interment will be a private gathering for immediate family in Restlawn Memorial Gardens. Memorial contributions may be given to Harbor

Humane Society.

We will miss her smile, laughter and phone calls. Pamela-Amla was a special friend to many stray cats , her faith was strong, she loved her family deeply. We know she is at rest now and just a whisper away as GOD has promised. Peace to her entire family.

To Kelli, Kerry, Kris & all your families. May God grant you peace & comfort at this time. It's always hard to say goodbye to someone we love, but we have the assurance we will see them again. To me she will always be Aunt Pam. Love always Donna Huston.

“ I got to know Pam thru her participation in many of the Holland High School class reunions of the class of 1959. Many of her classmates got to know her better thru the efforts she put forth on the committee that planned and made many reunions happen about every 5 years. She will be missed by many of her classmates. Bob and Sue Parkes, the class of 1959

“ May the Lord be with you all through this difficult time. I miss her already. When I walk into her house to feed Ebby I can still smell her. I'll miss getting donuts on Wednesday. Sitting on the swing for morning & afternoon therapy. I'll miss hearing about what Simon did at Sunday dinner at Kelli's.
I only had Pam in my life for a year, but it felt like we had known each other forever.
Pam is in Heaven feeling no pain & gardening for her Lord!
I will miss her deeply
