“ "Carson, Tony, Lorrie and Barry: So, so sorry to hear of Pat's, your Mom's death. I heard it on Sunday, however I could not find any info regarding her funeral and did not attend. I extend my sympathy to you and each of your families. Your Mom was so strong and courageous and I admired her. I am glad I will see her when I get to heaven. Cherish the memories you have of her, she will remain forever in your heart."

“Please accept our sincere heartfelt sympathy for your loss. It's hard to say goodbye to this dear lady, she is already missed; a void that will always be felt. Pat gave so much to so many, always putting everyone else first and herself last. Oh how she loved the LORD, her husband Carson, her children, grandchildren, and great grandchild. The Lord knew she was tired and He in His love for her took her to be with Him before she suffered anymore. She took her last breath here, and took her first wondrous breath there. Scripture promises absent from the body, in the presence of the LORD. As we grieve, us missing her, she's rejoicing in Heaven with our LORD, and she will watch, waiting for all of us who love the LORD to join her, when it is our time. Lean on Him during these days and weeks and He will sustain you. May the LORD Bless you and keep you always in His loving arms. Kath & Howie Stieber (In-laws)”
