“ Peter was a wonderful friend to me (and so many others) in high school and university and beyond. We had so many life-changing experiences together. We explored the world together. He taught me about music. His amazing work ethic inspired me. Peter had so many beautiful ideas and then acted on those ideas, creating art, laughter, experiences, and changes in the world. I am so fortunate to have known him. I am so sorry for his family's loss. Thank you, Peter, for everything.
