“ She was a dear cousin and I have fond memories of get togethers ! Our families were close and at times shared holidays, lots of turns hosting after church coffees , and were always there for each other! She will be missed but now she's in glory with those family members that have gone before her. Prayers of comfort for her children, grand children, family and friends! Joanne Geurink

The cousin bond is strong, despite the generational gap there are fond memories. Even as a teenager Phyl was kind and attentive to the 'little' cousins, as well as the old aunties and uncles. May all who are left with an empty chair in the family gatherings experience the comfort which is a gift from God.
