

Randy Dokter

December 19, 1946 - September 1, 2018

Randall Clare Dokter, 71, of Holland, passed away peacefully on Saturday, September 1, 2018. Randy was born December 19, 1946, in Holland, Michigan, to Clarence and Fanna (Tripp) Dokter. He graduated from Holland Christian High School and later married Laurel Karsten June 7, 1968. Randy was a decorated veteran of the U.S. Army, serving in Vietnam in 1969-1970. Randy was a self-employed sales representative, and the owner of MarketWise Industrial Sales. Randy enjoyed hunting, fishing, spending time at the cottage, and carving duck decoys. He invested a big part of this life in being a devoted husband, father and grandfather, and loved attending his children and grandchildren's many athletic and school events. Randy instilled his generosity and positive attitude to those that surrounded him; this treasured gift will carry on for generations. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Laurel, their children and grandchildren: Troy and Julie Dokter (Kailey, Zach, Kelsey) of Holland, Todd and Sheila Dokter (Jillian, Gentille, Alaina) of Zeeland, Ryan and Lindsey Dokter (Wynn, Waverly) of Holland, brothers: Tim Dokter and Joyce Clark, Chuck and Jan Dokter, his Aunt Pat Tripp, nieces, nephews, and cousins. A funeral service to honor the faith and life of Randy Dokter will be held at 1:00 pm Wednesday, September 5, 2018, at Harderwyk Christian Reformed Church. Visitation will be held 2-4 and 6-8 pm, Tuesday, at the Langeland Sterenberg Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th Street, Holland MI 49423. Memorial contributions to Holland Christian Schools.

“"Dearest Dokter's, Randy loved you all so very much. Every time we got together he had beautiful stories of how proud he was of you (I was always asking, anyway). He was always so thankful for you. And that laugh he had when he was telling me stories!! It was infectious. And he loved my family so much. I can't imagine the future without him. I know you can't either. hugs to you all."
