“ "Dear Ines, I'm so sorry to hear Ray passed. You and your family are in my prayers."

Barbara Schippa - December 01, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ "Our sympathies to you Ines. We treasure our memory of Veterans day dinner with him. You will be in our thoughts and prayers as you transition into life without your sweetheart. His suffering is over. Safe in the arms of Jesus."

Janice Meister - December 01, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ "Raymond was part of the one percent that served his country. As one U.S. Army Veteran to another and a decent brother-in-law, take care brother."

Paul Bauer Jr - November 30, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ "Dear Ines! I am so sorry about your loss of your dear husband. May he rest in God's presence and peace."

“I worked with Ray at Kearfott-singer in New Jersey for many years. when we were getting married I asked Ray if he could give this girl, Ines, who worked a different shift to our wedding. They hit it off right away and were married that same year. Ray & Ines lived in Lake Hopatcong and we lived in Randolph, NJ. We both had children, Tania and Michael. Until the children were the age of 2 we lived near each and time and have wonderful memories of great meals, laughter and enjoying the little ones. Ray was a quite yet great man, husband and father. Ray and Ines boundless love was evident. Our prayers and thoughts are with Ines, Tania, Wayne and the children. May Ray rest in peace and the love of our Lord. Rami and Lourdes Diaz”
