“So Sorry to hear this news I've known Raymond almost all of his life from when he was a child to shortly before he married and moved north.. when my First Wife and I used to be at his parents home quite a bit I am certain more than we needed to be lol ray being the oldest boy of two he used to take the brunt of things that were not his doing and got yelled alot. because of that I tried to keep in touch through others and found that Ray was a gentle man and a proud father he became everything he needed to be to have such a wonderful family I had hoped I would see him again but maybe we will meet in heaven one day...to everyone else I remember all and love just as much Tim Christner.....”
