“I met Ray when Mel worked at Family Dollar. When I first started he learned my name right off Always had a greeting for me when he came in which was almost daily. He was always friendly to everyone he met an when you spoke he listened an remembered. I saw him meet n greet many people an everyone felt his warmth an kindness. He was also the protector too. He always was concerned for us gals at Family Dollar an our safety. It was a pleasure knowing you Ray an I know you will be missed but also remembered. Thank you for your service Ray! Tall tall my friend!❤️❤️”
