“ "I am very sad to hear of Bob's passing. I first met Bob in his Lear Siegler days and subsequently we became colleagues within Smiths Aerospace. Latterly, before my own retirement, I headed the Customer Support team at Heathrow airport and both I and many of my colleagues relied a great deal on Bob to help us with Customer issues. We met often in the UK, USA and occasionally elsewhere around the world and enjoyed some good times together on these occasions. Bob was always positive, gave good council and was part of the solution to our problems, never part of the problem. He was also good fun to be around when work was done. I know that I can confidently give our deep condolences to Bob's family and friends on behalf of many of my colleagues (and friends), who may not yet be aware of this sad news, as well as my own appreciation of Bob as a valued colleague."

“ "I knew Bob when I worked at Smiths Aerospace in Bishops Cleeve UK. I visited Grand Rapids many times and met Bob. He was always so helpful and supportive. I also have fond memories of a business trip to St Petersburg in Russia where we took time to visit the museums and sights as well as working hard to support our Airline Customers. May I send my condolences to his wife and family. Tony Whieldon (retired from Smiths) Cheltenham UK"
