“ "To Marilyn and family: We just heard of Rev. Timmerman's passing. We have many pleasant memories of Middleville CRC and the fellowship with this congregation. Our son, Chris, was Rev. Timmerman's first baptism when he arrived in Middleville and now he is 41 years old with three children of his own! We wish to send you our condolences and prayers that God may be close to all of you as you deal with this loss."

“Mrs. T, Ross, Rolfe, Rolin and families, our thoughts and prayers are with you. Please know he is in a better place. As one of four of Rolfe's buddies from Hope (something he always gave us a hard time over) - I know I'm correct in stating that we always enjoyed coming to Hamilton for our winter getaway and a fun part of that was having a 3hr breakfast with Rev T every yr. He seemed to get a ton of enjoyment out of getting together with us (most of the time giving us the business) - I know I will miss these visits and hearing him laugh (mostly at us).”

“When I think about my grandpa, some of my fondest memories are the traditions we shared. For example, I think of how for every Christmas I would give him a box of Queen Anne chocolate covered cherries. Few things are certain in this life, except the fact that in accordance with tradition, my grandpa always somehow seemed to know what he would get from me for Christmas (although if you talk to a certain uncle of mine, he will remind you that HE started that tradition). Next, I will always remember the infamous birthday spankings and what my grandpa liked to call "a pinch for an inch". This unpleasant birthday tradition must have worked seeing as I eventually grew taller than him. Finally, I remember how he always liked to call me heel grabber carpenter- a literal translation of my name. Above all else, I think of his great sense of humor and the very positive influence he had on me as I grew up. I am very thankful for the time I was able to spend with him and the memories we made. While I miss him dearly, I have no doubt that he is now in paradise.”

“Marilyn, Ross, Rolfe and Rolin and families, Our thoughts and prayers are with you in the loss of Pastor Rog. We have fond memories of the 28 years that we spent together at MCRC. His laugh was infectious and we enjoyed just being around him. I remember his excuses for his boys absentism at school. Gary enjoyed serving on Council with him. We watched our families grow and expand together. So many memories..... Blessings!

“I will always remember Roger's smile, his laughter, his sense of humor, and his amazing ability to tell stories. I was young when my own father died, and I knew him much longer than I did my own father. He was always good to me. I never knew him when he was able to walk without canes, and I look forward to the day when I can see him again walking freely and pain-free.
But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint. Isaiah 40:31”

“For as long as I can remember, my Grandpa struggled with MS. However, I cannot recall him ever complaining about his situation or feeling bitter about it. He was always a source of great joy for me as I grew up. One of my favorite memories of him was when he almost tricked me into taking a bite out of a Oreo shaped piece of soap. I hesitated, but my brother took it and bit down, with hilarious results. Every once in a while, the three of us would share that story and burst out laughing once again. Not even Pulmonary Fibrosis could diminish his joy for us whenever we visited him. I am thankful for the time that I could spend with my Grandpa. I miss him dearly, but I know that he is in a place now where there is no suffering.”

“When thinking about my grandpa it is impossible for just one memory to come to mind... I think about the dutch licorice he tricked me into liking as a child, the rides on his scooter through the camp ground up north, the Sunday nights we spent in front of the TV griping about how awful the Minnesota Vikings were (and still are), and the trip we took together with my dad to Iowa and Minnesota to retrace our roots. Above all else, however, I think about his perserverence through tough times and the role he played in shaping me, and the rest of my family, into the people we are today. I miss you grandpa.”

“Each Day ...Each day I wake up knowing that my father is gone from this world.Each day I force myself to take another step.Each day I face new activities not anticipated.Each day I still expect to hear his voice.Each day I see my father walking and running through the streets of Heaven.Each day God's grace finds me in ways unexpected.Each day I'm closer to the day, when I'll hear His voice forevermore.Until that day I'll persevere and carry on.(I miss you dad!)”
