“ Hi to the family;

My name is Rolland W. Groenink the four son of John Groenink of Coopersville. My mother and dad name me because of your grandpa name they like the name. I don't think I ever meet your father that I can remember. I'm 20 years younger then your father. I wish I would seen the notice earlier I would have love to meet the families. Your great grandmother Tena was a Groenink. My folks visited your great grandparents several times on Sundays and went to church with them in Muskegon. And they also came out to the our farm in Coopersville at 6363 Hayes.

I have a copy of the book your Great Grandmother wrote about her life.

I still live in the Coopersville area and have a small produce farm being semi-retired. 8395 Leonard Coopersville. I have customer drive 20 to 30 miles for my seedless Rolly's watermelons. Stop in some time I always have extra hoe.

Again sorry I missed the Celebration of grandpa life,

Your shirt-tail Cousin

Rolland William Groenink
