“ Rod, Rox and Ross, we are all sure going to miss your brother. He was very good at keeping me updated on the entire family. I always enjoyed our talks and his zest for life, particularly when it wasn't always going so well. He and Gloria are together again. My thoughts are with you all. Uncle Barry

“ Ross what can I say. We spent many a night at Rod & Kathy's house talking about your time in the navy and your travels. You saw things many of us would not understand. The last time I saw you was in Meijer's in Holland and you were still the same old Ross. You will be missed but never forgotten. Rest in peace as your demons and bad memories are now healed. You always had a heart of gold not everyone saw but I did.
