“ "I liked this photo the best because it brought out Sara's beautiful smile & loving heart..it was taken at a ministry where she blessed all the sheep at the church....touching countless number of lives for the Lord...Sara was my sister, mentor & teacher...I miss you, but know how happy you are with our Lord...take heart Sara's family...I pray you have peace...knowing that her love shines through you, so she is never far away.....I think this is a way that the Lord gives us love & hope to go to heaven when He takes a loved one before us....& how joyful it will be to get hugs again from Sara in the best family ever...."
