“ Sharon gave me and Dave’s cousin Rosie wonderful Bridal shower when we married. Dave & I Miss not living near family as we have lost touch. But such sweet memories of the times we had family gatherings and coffee after Church services. Edna and Harold, Art and Richard are gone. David & I retired and my named is Sheri Reno-Oosting. We all went to Third Reformed. Art’s widow Carol & family and Dave & I share sorrow of this news. She was a lovely person with wonderful Laugh. Happy she is with Wes in Heaven and May the family find comfort knowing this. Peace be with you

“ I am grateful to have known Sharon when she lived at Royal Park Place where I served as one of the chaplains. She was a delightful person to chat with. I set up a luncheon with her pastor every fall and she thoroughly enjoyed those visits and always got very dressed up and looked beautiful. My sympathies are extended to her family and loved ones. Sincerely, Cindy Nyhoff
