“ Shirley and I were best friends all through high school . Life goes on and we went separate ways. But God gave us one last time to see each other , as we unexpectedly ran into each other at Jackie's Place just a little over 2 weeks ago. I truly believe we were meant to see each other on that evening one last time. Rest in Heavenly Peace friend

“ Dear Steve and family,
I am sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. It seems that a few times a year we would run into each other at Meijer. So much fun to catch up for a bit. One time she invited me over to the house in West Olive. As I got ready to leave, she said she had too many warm ups and would I like one. I said yes. I still wear it today, and even though it has seen better days, it's my favorite. I always remember Shirley when I wear it.
Bye for now Shirley,

Shirley and her family were our neighbors behind us, me on 15th and Shirley and family on 14th. We played together growing up and walking to school together at times too. I ran into Shirley at Walmart on my first and only trip just before my first hip replacement in 2016. I knew she had a few health issues but Shirley was a fighter. Breast cancer discovered at stage 4 is a hard one to beat especially if you can't do the chemo. I will see you again one day Shirley and will keep your family in my prayers and thoughts. RIP

“ I have known Shirley for over 50 years and have sooo many wonderful memories! The most recent one was the last time she was able to get out and about and we went for a walk on the beach at Holland State Park. We had a beautiful time and after we drove through the campground and she shared her memories of camping there with her family. Then we went for ice cream and we just enjoyed our time together! She was sooo happy and said that we needed to do that more often! Then God decide he needed her as his personal Angel! So I am grateful for the 50 plus years we shared. Shirley was ALWAYS ALWAYS willing to help me if I ever needed ANYTHING! Sometimes we would call each other just to hear one another's voice And say "I love you"! She was always more of a Sister than my blood. My Angel on Earth is now God's Angel in Heaven! ❤️💕🙏🏻🎉 This photo is when we went to Hard Rock Casino in Indiana! Had the time of our lives! Gonna miss these times. 😭
