“ I was dismayed to find Tom's obit, unaware he had passed. He was my first friend. As little boys, we climbed trees, rode bikes, made forts, played with toy trucks and basically discovered the world together. Around age 7 my family moved, and I didn't keep up much with Tom, and we were in different grades in school. He was a sweet boy and wonderful first friend. Our short time together was a beautiful gift, and I am ever grateful. I grieve the loss and not keeping up. Much love to you my sweet friend! See you soon.
