“Holly, Jakob and Bos family, It pains me that I cannot be there today or tomorrow to see you. I have fond memories of spending many hours at the Bos home as a kid. Recently I had a long talk with Teebbs and Jakob in your driveway. As I was leaving I told myself we had not had a talk like that in 20 years. I did not know what caused me to go out of my way down Lakewood and turn into the second driveway. Now I know. Alan Brink or as Teebbs called me, Big Al.”
