“ I will never forget all of the memories we made together! The river trips, camping, mushroom hunting, watching the Steelers, Red Wings and the endless hours we spent on the phone! Your friendship helped me through some of the hardest years of my life and I am forever grateful. I know you're in Heaven smiling down. Casey and Michelle have been incredible. Your husband has been so strong, will continue to be, and love on your grand babies with his whole heart. We will help him through this any way we can. We love you both dearly. We will see you when we get there. 💜

“ The last time I seen my sister we were at a park down by Pier Cove and we're looking for rocks. I found so many fossil rocks we didn't want to stop but we're tired. Then we had to walk up a bunch of stairs and stopped several times to catch our breath. At this time a wave came in, scared her and she shoved me into the water. We laughed about that for days. We would send each other videos of rocks. We would tell each other daily how much we loved each other. I miss you dearly sis. Thank you for the memories.
