“ Mr. Barker - I am so sorry for your lost. Your wife was a kind caring person and I could tell you were so loving to her. I was shocked to read of her death today in the newspaper. I just saw both of you last Sunday at Holland Hospital where you regularly came to eat lunch on Sundays. She would always talk you into pushing her wheelchair into the gift shop. She loved to browse the lovely items and try to talk you into something. I could see the love you both had for each other. She made a comment last week - "wish I could buy that table and chair set even if I enjoyed it for a week" - I wish I could have sold it to you many times. I did not know the details of her life and she must have been loved by all. Again I am sorry for your lost and many will miss her.

“I have great memories singing in the choir with Trudy at Oak Lawn Bible Church many years ago. She was a wonderful woman and a great friend of my husband Tim's family. I'm sure she will be greatly missed by many and is having a great time as she's been reunited with many who have gone before her. Tim and Sandy McCrory”

“ Right now I am lost for words. I am still in FL and was reading the paper on line.

TRUDY was a Dear Christian Friend. I am so sorry I will not be home for her service.

Melody, you will miss your mom but so thankful for the long life you have had with her.

We enjoyed our weekly breakfast and I too will miss having her to talk and share the Love of God. I know there are others that feel the same. There is just so much your mother did it is hard to mention it all. She was one of God's "very special" daughter's.

To the rest of her family you have my sympathy. And to you Phil, you were sent from God for her. You were a very special caregiver. May God be with all of you during this time of Celebrating her Home Going. God Bless each of you."
