“ Dear Barbara & Family: I knew Wayne through RTNDA. He was legendary in the organization as a leader and strong voice for broadcast ethics. At the time, I was a 'small market' news director. A 'no one' in the dynamics of the organization. Yet he took time to meet me, to encourage me, to offer advice and an open phone line should I ever need it. I will never forget that kindness....and tried to emulate it when I eventually rose to become the first woman to head RTNDA. My deepest sympathies to you on the loss of a wonderful man.

“ One of my all-time favorites is when Wayne and I went to a Chicago Cubs game. He took me up to the broadcast booth and we watched the game with Harry Carey, the radio announcer.

“ We have such precious memories of our times spent with you and Wayne when we all lived in Des Plaines, Il some 40 years ago. Wayne was fairly new at WGN and we were all young couples with young kids. We cherished our friendship with you two. Prayers go out as God goes with you in days ahead.
