William (Bill) was a loving husband to his wife, Carol for 65 1/2 years. He was self-employed as a carpenter/contractor in Evergreen Park, Illinois his entire career and generously gave of his time and talent to his family and friends. He gave of himself freely through the years as a Sunday school teacher, Boy Scout leader, church consistory member, singing in the choir, serving on the school board, and most recently at Bibles for Mexico. He and Carol relocated to Holland 8 years ago and have invested in their family. He was a proud father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was a prankster, loved any type of game, and was a great listener. All in all, he was a big man but had an even bigger heart. He was deeply loved and will be dearly missed.

Bill is survived by his wife, Carol Kooienga; son, Mark and Cheryl Kooienga; daughter, Beth and Douglas VanDyken; son, Joel and Janel Kooienga; grandchildren, Kevin Kooienga, Caitlin Kooienga, Brian and Sam Kooienga, Zach and Erica Holliday, Cameron and Gabi Holliday, Timothy "TJ" and Tina VanDyken, Emily VanDyken, Matthew and Sydney VanDyken, Breanna and Max Chumley, Jack Kooienga, Olivia Kooienga; 7 great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Coba Fischer; and extended family.

Visitation with the family is 10:00 am - 10:45 am on Saturday, August 16, 2025, at Langeland Sterenberg Funeral Home, 315 E. 16th St. Holland, MI 49423.
