

William James Moomey

November 1, 1940 - January 12, 2024

William James Moomey, born on November 1, 1940, in Holland, MI, peacefully passed away on January 12, 2024, at his home in Holland, MI. He was 83 years old.

A dedicated laborer, William spent an impressive 34 years at LifeSavers, where he poured his heart and soul into his work. William's strong work ethic and determination served as a testament to his perseverance and commitment.

Beyond his professional life, William had a passion for deer hunting that he carried with him throughout his years. The thrill of the chase and the beauty of nature captured his heart and brought him immense joy.

William will be dearly missed by Marilyn, his loving spouse of many years, his adoring son William Jr. and Barbara Moomey, his cherished daughter Christina and Steve Essenburgh, sisters-in-law: Linda Moomey, Georgene Lawson, and brother-in-law, Earnest Dyer; as well as many nieces and nephews.

While no formal services are planned, the family kindly requests that friends and relatives take a moment to remember William and celebrate his life in their own special way.

May William James Moomey's vibrant spirit and lasting legacy continue to inspire all those who were fortunate enough to know him. Condolences may be left online at www.yntemafh.com.
