“ I will miss you my friend. No more playing pool together. I will miss your smiles and the way you joke with me. I Just found out today April 10, 2014 that you were gone by one of our co-workers at Magna. Maybe four weeks ago when I saw you at the bowling alley I should have sad down with you and pay more attention but I did not because I was playing APA Pool. May God take you into heaven and may you be happy their too. Good bye my friend with love Steve.

“ Falicia, Jimmy, Rylie and Dylan,
We were so saddened to hear about the loss of your brother/uncle. May you take solace in knowing that he is with his Savior Jesus Christ. Having only met Larry once, at Mike and Sonia's home, we were witness to the loving relationship you had with him. Although I know that these laughs and loving moments will be missed, I hope you believe that you will all be reunited one day, in the peaceful Heavenly land. God Bless and With love, Jeff, Mandy, Nicholas and Matthew Barlow

“ To the family of Larry Calanchi,

Larry was a great part in the initial ramping up of bent glass needed at Magna Mirrors - South. I worked with Larry for almost 3 years. We didn't always agree, but we always agreed to leave it at that. Having my own personal issues, whenever Larry needed an answer for something personal, and asked me, I gave him my best response, based on my own vast personal experience. I did NOT socialize with him outside of Magna 3rd shift, (I now wish I had) but he always knew I was there, if he needed assistance. My prayers go to his son Noah and extended family, as I will always remember him.

PS: I had not EVER seen Larry with a full beard...it is a great pic of him. I always told him he should start one. Glad he finally did. I also called him 'Greaser' because of his hair styling at the time I knew him.

“ Dear Larry I thank Our good &merciful loving God for him having shared you with us your family over here in West Texas(Odessa/ Midland) . Even though circumstances caused our Families to grow up & apart in long distance We all over here will always Love and be so grateful to God for the privilege of ever being a small part of your Life. As christians that we are we know sometime in the future we will see each other again.Love you Larry R.I.P. May the Lords Love & Peace be with All of you the rest of my Holland Family.

“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it]. Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

“ My thoughts and prayers to all of Larry's family and friends. May you rest in peace. You will truly be missed. I have many great and funny memories of you. Most from middle school :) So it has been many years but living in holland it was always a pleasant surprise to run into you through out the years. Knowing that will not be again saddens me but i know you are in a better place. And may you be a guiding light and angel for all who loved and cared for you. Especially that adorable little boy of yours. Untill we may meet again enjoy paradise Larry.
